

Saving money on your energy bills

How much could you save on your energy bills in a year?

1) Turning your thermostat down by 1 degree can save you

a) £65 b) £75 c) £85

2) Replace old light bulbs (10) for energy efficient ones in the home can save you

a) £10 b) £20 c) £30

3) Using the right amount of water in your kettle can save you

a)
a) £8 b) £10 c) £12

4) Not leaving appliances on standby - turning them off can save you

a) £ 42 b) £62 c) £82

5) Switching energy supplier can save you

a) £101 b) £121 c) £141

6) Doing your laundry at 30C can save you

a) £13 b) £23 c) £33

7) Draught proofing your home can save you

a) £55 b) £65 c) £75

8) Changing an old fridge freezer for an A+ rated appliance can save you

£47 c) £57

a) £37 b)

9) Closing internal doors can save you

a) £11 b) £21 c) £31

10) Fix dripping taps can save you

a) £33 b) £23 c) £13

